Connection with the Community

Public Relations

The President of the Executive Board is the official spokespersons for the District Boards. The Director is the District's chief spokesperson. The Director or designee shall plan and implement a District public relations program that will:

1. Develop community understanding of school operation.
2. Gather community attitudes and desires for the District.
3. Secure adequate financial support for a sound educational program.
4. Help the community feel a more direct responsibility for the quality of education provided by their schools.
5. Earn the community's good will, respect, and confidence.
6. Promote a genuine spirit of cooperation between the school and the community.
7. Keep the news media accurately informed.
8. Coordinate with the District Safety Coordinator to provide accurate and timely information to the appropriate individuals during an emergency.

The public relations program may include:

1. Regular news releases concerning District programs, policies, activities, and special event management for distribution by, for example, posting on the District website or sending to the news media.
2. News conferences and interviews, as requested or needed. The Board President and Director will coordinate their respective media relations efforts. Individuals may speak for the District only with prior approval from the Director.
3. Publications having a high quality of editorial content and effective format. All publications shall identify the District, originating program, department, or classroom and shall include the name of the Director, the Technical Assistance Supervisor, and/or the author and the publication date, and
4. Other efforts that highlight the District's programs and activities.
