Administrative Procedure - Evaluating and Reporting Student Achievement

Actor	Action
Teacher	Informs students about the grading system at the beginning of each school year or term, whichever is applicable. Explains that grades: (1) assess progress toward education goals and assist in the improvement of that progress, (2) will be given by the teacher, using his or her professional judgment, in an impartial and consistent manner, and (3) will reflect excessive, unexcused absences. Assesses student achievement as demonstrated through such performance indicators as the following (these are not listed in order of importance and are not exclusive): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Preparation of assignments, including completeness, accuracy, legibility, and promptness. 2. Contribution to classroom discussions. 3. Demonstrated understanding of concepts. 4. Application of skills and knowledge to new situations. 5. Organization, presentation, and content of written and oral reports. 6. Originality and reasoning ability when working through problems. 7. Accomplishment in class presentations and projects. 8. Performance on tests, quizzes, and final examinations. Assigns grades for academic improvement and achievement using standardized criterion-referenced test scores, letter grades, and/or other assigned numerical criteria. A grade of incomplete should be assigned when a student experiences an excused, extended absence at the end of the term or during final examinations; an incomplete grade, if not satisfied within 2 weeks, will be changed to a failure. Whenever it becomes evident that a student is in danger of failing, arranges a special conference with the parent(s)/guardian(s) or sends the parent(s)/guardian(s) a written report, unless otherwise indicating on an IEP or 504 plan.
Technical Assistance Supervisor or designee	Supervises implementation of this administrative procedure.

Actor	Action
	Insures that parent(s)/guardian(s) are informed of their student's progress at regular intervals, but at least 4 times a year, and whenever the student's performance requires special attention. Divorced or separated parents will both be informed unless a court order requires otherwise. All grades and symbols must be appropriately explained. Establishes an appropriate means of communication whenever he or she becomes aware that a parent/guardian is unable to understand written communications from the school or oral communications made during conferences related to the student's progress or school activities. Develops a timetable for deficiency reports. Supervises the various methods for communicating with parents/guardians including: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Parent-teacher conferences, conducted on a regular basis. They may be scheduled on different days and at different times to accommodate the various grade levels and attendance centers. 2. Open houses, parent education meetings, and newsletters. 3. Interim reports, through which teachers contact parents/guardians whenever teachers believe additional information should be shared. Teachers shall try to be available to meet with parents/guardians at a mutually agreed upon time.
Technical Assistance Supervisor or Home District [Elementary schools only]	Makes the final decision for a student's retention with input from the classroom teacher, parent/guardian, and other school personnel as appropriate. Retention decisions are based on quantitative measures (e.g., maturity level, ability, and level of academic achievement), supplemented by a qualitative assessment of the student's motivation, self-image, and social adjustment. Students shall not be promoted for purely social reasons. Recommends placement, promotion, or retention based on the student's best interests after a careful evaluation of the advantages and disadvantages of alternatives. For each student who does not qualify for promotion to the next higher grade, determines appropriate remedial assistance, that may include,
