WORD OF THE WEEK

WHYS & WAYS FOR 'MORE'

WHYS (REASONS TO COMMUNICATE)	WAYS (TO USE THE TARGET WORDS)
-------------------------------	--------------------------------

EXPRESSING NEEDS AND WANTS

Choice making	more that
Gaining attention	more! no more!
Requesting	more, want more, I want more, I want more now, I want some more need more, need more now
Refusing, rejecting, protesting	no more, not more, I don't want more

LITERACY SUGGESTIONS

- The following books have repeated lines with the word "more":
 - More Spaghetti, I Say by Rita Golden Gelman
 - More Pants, by Giles Andreae
 - Guess How Much I Love You, by Sam McBratney
 - Ten Apples Up on Top, by Dr Seuss
 - More Bears, by Kenn Nesbitt
 - Just One More, by Jennifer Hansen Rolli

IDEAS FOR USING HE AND SHE

- Create opportunities to model "more" by only giving a small amount of an item or an action to a student, then waiting to see if they want more. Some simple ideas include:
 - Block building: Give one block at a time
 - Playdoh: Give one small blob of playdoh
 - Bubbles: Blow once
 - Drawing: Give one pen
 - Balloons: Blow up a little bit
 - Swing: One push of the swing
 - Tickles: One tickle at a time
 - Music: Play and pause the music
 - Instruments and singing: Play instruments and sing, and pause.
 - And much more!
