

Autism Strategies Training Series

Trainings will be from 3:15-3:45 one time per month. You may choose to attend all trainings or an individual training. Trainings will be held virtually via Google Meet. Trainings are open to special education teachers, regular education teachers, paraprofessionals, administrators, special education coordinators and speech-language pathologists.

Reinforcement Systems - November 16 - Presenter: Pam Briscoe

Learn strategies to use penny boards, token boards, daily reward charts, and more to keep students on task.

Registration Link: <https://qrgo.page.link/QrKbw>

Work Systems - December 9 - Presenter: Shelly Seaman

Learn how to organize your student's work in order to help him/her initiate and complete work as well as get it turned in.

Registration Link: <https://qrgo.page.link/5LGbo>

Effective Transitions - January 25 - Presenter: Martha Kirts

Learn how visual schedules, social stories, and positive reinforcement increase student's ability to effectively transition between activities/classes.

Registration Link: <https://qrgo.page.link/W3E2J>

Video Models - February 24 - Presenter: Martha Kirts

Learn simple ways to create and utilize video models to increase student independence.

Registration Link: <https://qrgo.page.link/zxAb8>

Perspective Taking - March 23 - Presenter: Pam Briscoe

Students on the autism spectrum often have decreased ability to understand the perspectives of others. Learn strategies to improve this skill.

Registration Link: <https://qrgo.page.link/qi7RG>

Prompt Hierarchy - April 28 - Presenter: Shelly Seaman

Often students with autism become prompt dependent. Learn how to decrease the prompts you provide based upon a prompt hierarchy.

Registration Link: <https://qrgo.page.link/LTRac>

0.5 CPDUs will be provided for each session. Links will be sent for Google Meet after registration is completed. If you are going to be a little late or have to leave a little early you are welcome to still attend any portion of the session.